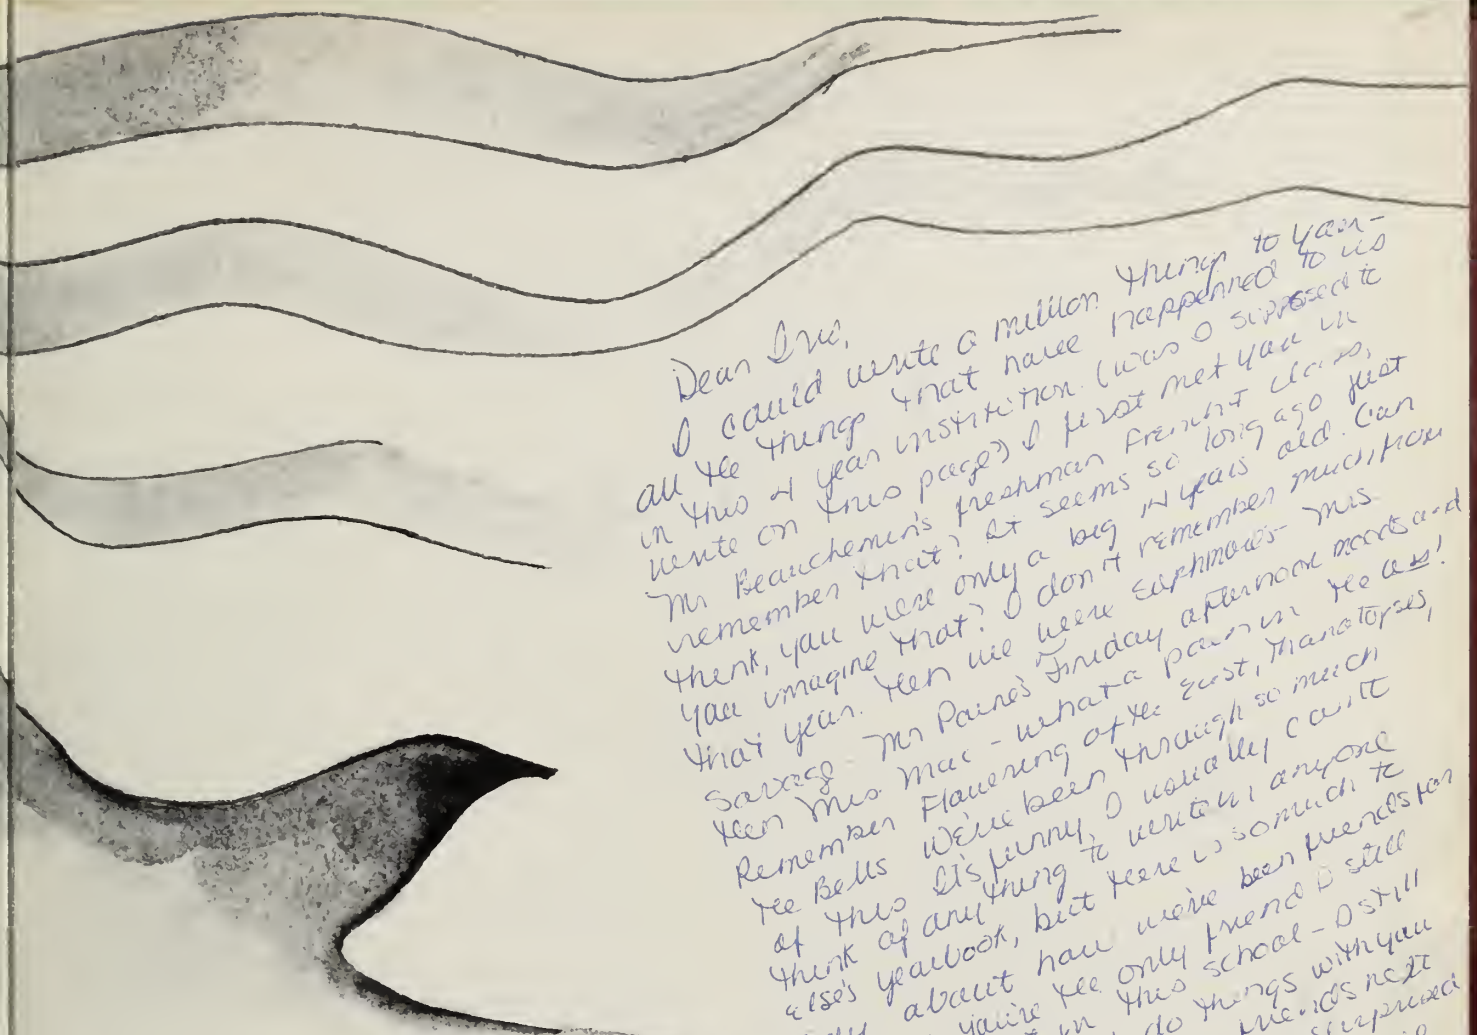
Gus Fingold 1976



Dear Eve,
I could write a million things to you - all the things that have happened to us in this year institution (was I supposed to write on this page?) I first met you in Mr Beauchemin's freshman French class, remember that? It seems so long ago that I think, you were only a big 14 years old. Can you imagine that? I don't remember much of that year. Then we were sophomores - Mrs Savage - Mr Paine's Friday afternoon movies - Then Mrs Mac - what a pain in the ass! Remember Flowering of the East, Manatopes, The Bells We've been through so much of this. It's funny, I usually can't think of anything to write to anyone else's yearbook, but there is so much to say about how we've been friends so long you're the only friend I still care about in this school - I still try & find time to do things with you & see you'll still be friends next year, and I wouldn't be surprised if we're still friends after we get out of this place. You're invited to my wedding, of course - if it ever takes place. You have been so good to me - my best friend - I don't know how you put up with me. You know how it is when you're in love & happy & will be very happy. Don't feel bad that you don't have a boyfriend or prospect now because believe me, you'll get better & you'll end up with the happiness that you deserve. You're terrific. Take care of yourself & see you all this summer.

Love, Patti
